President's Welcome

It is with much pride and enthusiasm that I join my fellow Kiwanians in welcoming you to our 42nd annual Stilwell Strawberry Festival.

Each year we anticipate having you as our guests for the day. We look forward to seeing our many friends and making new friends as well. The Kiwanis Club of Stilwell in cooperation with the Ad-Co Kiwanis Club, the outstanding businesses, local strawberry growers, Mayor, the Stilwell City Council, Chamber of Commerce, Stilwell School Systems and the fine citizens of our community have worked long and hard hours in hopes of providing you and your family fun and enjoyment for the day.

Each year we strive to improve the quality of our festival and we hope this will be evident to you our guests, as this is one of the largest events in the State of Oklahoma. Some activities include a 5 kilometer family run, parade, festival luncheon, crowning of the queen, country & western entertainment and of course the serving of free strawberries in the afternoon.

Once again I extend a big THANK YOU to the many people involved in making the Strawberry Festival a success, and a Special THANK YOU to YOU our guests for making it all possible. Join in and let's all have a great time at the 1989 Stilwell Strawberry Festival.

Best Personal Regards,

CLUB SPONSORS FESTIVAL

The Stilwell Kiwanis Club, which has sponsored the Strawberry Festival ever since its inception, has had an unbroken tradition of community service since it was chartered 42 years ago.

Under the motto of "We Serve", the Stilwell Kiwanis Club Sponsors such diversified activities as the Boy Scouts, the annual Strawberry Festival, and the summer baseball program for area boys and girls.

Club members participate in fund raising activities such as "Pancake Day" which traditionally is held the morning of the opening day of deer season.

The Strawberry Festival dates back to 1948 when the Stilwell Kiwanis Club decided to do something about stimulating interest in one of Adair County's major economic resources.

The Strawberry crop that year was valued at about $750,000 and was described as "the biggest berry harvest the area has ever experienced."

HISTORICAL BRIEFS

Stilwell was named for Arthur Edward Stilwell who built the Kansas City Southern Railway, founded several dozen hamlets and villages, and created a city, Port Arthur, Tex., named for himself. Between 1886 and 1912, he made sizable contributions to the economic growth of the south-central states of Oklahoma, Arkansas, Louisiana, and Texas.

Stilwell was a red haw thicket, interspersed with persimmon trees, in 1895 when the Kansas City Southern Railway bought a right-of-way from Mrs. Martha Johnson and Mrs. Elizabeth Freeman. Very soon, lots were offered for sale and a town plat laid out.

The United States Congress passed a bill in 1830 for the removal of the Five Civilized Tribes from the southeastern part of the U.S. into Indian Territory, now known as Oklahoma. All of Adair County became a part of the Cherokee Nation. Many Cherokees were already here when, in about 1838, the Eastern Cherokees were forced to leave their homes in Georgia, Tennessee, and North Carolina and were driven over the infamous "Trail of Tears," ending in the northern part of Adair County at Mission Mountain.

About 91 per cent of the persons living in the southern part of Adair County are of Cherokee descent. Also, the county has the greatest concentration of Cherokee Indians in the United States.

Small town makes good.

■ Downtown Stilwell, Oklahoma, circa 1989, population 2,369.

In the early forties Stilwell, Oklahoma was a small town. A town populated by hard working, good people. The perfect place for a young company insistent on down-home goodness.

Stilwell, Oklahoma is still small. Still good. And, after forty-seven years, still home of Stilwell Foods. The company has grown and prospered. But we haven't lost our old-fashioned standards of goodness.

We still insist on garden freshness in our vegetables and the finest quality of ingredients for our bakery products. Tasty frozen vegetables and fruit. Mouth-watering frozen desserts. Tender and flaky pie crusts. Look for them in your grocer's freezer.

Stilwell Foods. Still insisting on the small town that makes good.
